

Important information from the race director

After the comments from various teams on the starting procedure and for SAFETY reason, I have decided to change the start lights position.

The start will be given from the first light gantry (Blancpain Sign) and it will be an early start like we have done since the beginning of the season

Alain ADAM

Race director