BLANCPAIN GT SERIES
SPORTING NOTE #1 – 09/04/17

VALID :
R2 : MONZA

TYRE ALLOCATION - MONZA

Further to information received from Pirelli, we have been informed that due to the Misano track layout, curbing and running conditions, the tyres used by the teams for the races were exposed to a high level of mechanical stress.

We have therefore received the request to extend the option, currently given to Pro-Am and Am teams taking part in the Blancpain GT Series to choose to start the first Endurance race with five new sets of tyres, to all cars.

The final paragraph of article 93 case A of the 2017 Sporting Regulations is therefore amended as follows :

Teams competing in the Am or Pro-Am categories of the Blancpain GT Series may, at the first Endurance race of the season, choose between five new sets of tyres or four sets plus two sets of used tyres from the first Sprint event. This choice must be made by Monday 17th April.

This request is accepted on grounds of safety and sporting equality.
