BRANDS HATCH SPECTATOR GUIDE

The Fanatec GT World Challenge Europe Powered by AWS season hits full speed this weekend (13–14 May) when the Sprint Cup stages its opening event of 2023 at Brands Hatch.

The British venue is a mainstay of the short-format series, with the upcoming round representing the ninth since it joined the calendar in 2014. A field of 29 cars and record-setting eight manufacturers prepare to tackle 3.9km Grand Prix layout.

There's plenty of activity this weekend and if you're attending as a spectator, the information below should help you to get the most out the experience.

SUPERCAR COLLECTIVE

To compliment the GT3 machinery competing on track, Brands Hatch will play host to the Supercar Collective, the newest super and hyper car show in the UK. Includes the finest offerings from Ferrari, Lamborghini, Porsche, McLaren, Aston Martin and more.

SUPERCAR COLLECTIVE DEMO SHOW

Taking place on Sunday, a select handful of the incredible supercars on display will participate in the Supercar Collective Demo Show. Each vehicle will be celebrating a milestone anniversary which includes both McLaren and Lamborghini's 60th anniversaries.

TRADE STANDS

A trade area will be in operation all weekend, with stalls selling parts, accessories and driver and team merchandise.

PAID FUNFAIR

The Brands Hatch Fun Zone will offer a fairground with an assortment of exciting rides. Individual charges apply.

GO KARTING - SUNDAY ONLY

You can also test your mettle with go-karting on a mini version of the Brands Hatch Indy circuit, located opposite the Megastore. £20 for ten minutes, open to those aged 8+, payable at the circuit.

ADVENTURE PLAYGROUND

Check out the Brands Hatch adventure playground near the Kentagon restaurant, which has equipment for children of all ages from toddler to 14.

* * *

CAMPING

The campsite opens at midday on the day before the event and closes at midday on the day after the event has finished. Please note that facilities will be provided in full during this time. Caravans and Motorhomes are permitted and will be directed on arrival at the venue.

There is no shop located on the campsite, but there are supermarkets nearby, including a Co-Op in West Kingsdown (approx 15-minute walk), and the circuit restaurants will be serving hot food, snacks and drinks.

BBQs are permitted as long as they are raised off the ground, but open fires are not permitted. You are welcome to bring your own alcohol too. Animals are not permitted anywhere on site at Brands Hatch (except Guide/Assistance dogs), including the campsite.

There are hot showers located on the campsite. Queues can be long at peak times.

There are plenty of bins provided, which are emptied during the weekend. Bin bags are provided at the campsite entrance.
